During Coffee County BOE meeting

Superintendent provides COVID-19 update

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Coffee County Board of Education met Thursday, Sept. 3, for its regular monthly meeting, and Superintendent Kevin Killingsworth provided a COVID-19 update to board members.

Killingsworth said he had been providing weekly updates to the public regarding the virus numbers affecting the schools. He said those updates were being released each Wednesday.

"Since our latest update on Wednesday, Aug. 26, we had five more positive cases in Coffee County Schools," the superintendent said Thursday evening.

Killingsworth said New Brockton High School had two additional cases, according to the Sept. 2nd report. This included one student and one faculty member. He said Zion Chapel had two more cases — one student at the elementary school and one student at the high school.

"Kinston has had their first case, a high school student," Killingsworth said. "This brings our total cases to 12 since the start of school on August 10th."

He added that all students and employees in close proximity to the individuals who have tested positive for COVID-19 have been quarantined, according to ADPH guidelines. He said all parents/guardians were notified by school personnel.

"Coffee County Schools continues to try to provide a safe environment for our students and employees," Killingsworth said. "We still ask students, parents, guardians, and fans to remember social distancing guidelines while attending athletic events on our campuses and venues. We want our students who participate in extra-curricular activities to have the opportunities to continue to compete in their chosen activity."

The superintendent said he cannot say enough about the staff of Coffee County Schools as they have worked diligently to provide the safest environment possible for all.

"Everyone working with the school system deserves a pat on the back," Killingsworth said. "Every one of our employees has done a phenomenal job this year under extreme circumstances."

He added, "We also ask parents to continue to monitor their children at home, and if a child cannot come to school, please let his/her school know."

The board approved several personnel matters during the meeting. These were recommended by the superintendent and approved by the board.

Betsy Wood was employed on a 12-month contract.

Elba City Schools superintendent Chris Moseley speaks from the central office, overlooking the system's campus, Tuesday morning, Sept. 8, about several ongoing issues Elba is facing due to COVID-19. Overall, the superintendent said the school system is doing a great job in dealing with COVID-19 virus matters as they arise, but he reminds the public there are things still to be done to ensure everyone's safety.

Elba Schools superintendent says he is proud of students and faculty in handling COVID-19 matters

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Elba City Schools superintendent Chris Moseley said earlier this week that he could not be prouder of the faculty, staff and students of the school system in how they all have handled the COVID-19 situation thus far this school year.

Speaking Tuesday morning, Sept. 8, from the central office on the Elba City Schools campus, Moseley said school is knee-deep into the year now, and overall, things had gone pretty much as expected.

"There have been some bumps in the road along the way so far, but we have been able to work through those things and take care of matters as needed," Moseley said. "I cannot stress enough how great our teachers and administrators have been as they have worked through problems that have arisen."

The superintendent said the traditional students [students taking classes on campus] also have been great thus far this school year in doing the things asked of them to stay safe in relation to COVID-19. He said he also was hearing great things about the virtual students.

"I have heard some reports where some of our virtual students need to login more often and complete their work more regularly, but this is typical of that type situation," Moseley said.

He said just like any other school and school system, Elba has had to deal with some COVID-19 cases, which also means sending home students and teachers in close contact; however, he said this has been handled very well so far without any large outbreaks.

"There are times we feel like we are sending healthy students/teachers home due to the close-contact guidelines, but we are trying to follow the guidelines as given to us by the health department and CDC," Moseley said. "It's a preventative thing, and I do think it has helped keep issues down at the schools for us."

The superintendent said a lot of the issues the system has dealt with regarding COVID-19 has seemed for

Governor says, "It's Now or Never" for participation

Census 2020 comes to a close at end of month

With the last day for Census 2020 participation set for Wednesday, Sept. 30, Governor Kay Ivey is urging all Alabamians who have not completed their forms to do so as quickly as possible.

Alabama's current self-response rate is 62.1 percent — 0.4 percent short of the self-response rate recorded in 2010, or 62.5 percent, according to information provided by the Census Bureau. When added with responses generated to date by Census field workers, a total of 78.5 percent of Alabama households have responded, Governor Ivey — alongside leadership from AlabamaCounts! — is targeting an 80 percent or higher total response rate by September 30.

"I've said it since our March kick-off, and I will say it again: Alabama stands to lose too much if we do not reach our goal of maximum participation," said Governor Ivey. "This isn't just money for our state — it's money for our small communities, for our educational systems, for our roads and for our children. There is simply too much community funding at stake here to disregard this final call."

Governor Ivey's office — alongside the Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs (ADECA) and AlabamaCounts! — has worked since March to ensure participation numbers statewide meet the mark. Recently, these efforts included the September 2 launch of the Alabama Census Bowl, in which low-responding counties have the chance to win $65,000 for their schools through Census participation.

"It takes a matter of six minutes to play your part in determining the future of our state by completing the census," said Governor Ivey. "These integral six minutes will determine what our communities will look like, what our children's education will be, and even what our healthcare can provide throughout the next decade."

Alabamians can fill out the 10-question Census online at my2020Census.gov, by phone at 1-844-330-2020 or by traditional paper form. Socially distanced door-to-door Census takers are also targeting households statewide that have been identified as current non-participants. Any information given in the 2020 Census is protected by strict federal law.

"Folks, it's now or never, and this is the time to act and to ensure Alabama has the future we hope to plan for," added Governor Ivey. "These last few weeks of Census 2020 are vital to our future as our federal representation, our economic development opportunities and our communities — and their citizens — will be impacted negatively unless we have a proper count."

Elba receives bicentennial project plaque during ceremony

The Elba Chamber of Commerce's Alabama Bicentennial Commission, received a special plaque commemorating its outstanding contribution to Alabama's recent bicentennial celebration.

More than 200 local community committees and dozens of organizations throughout the state participated in Alabama's bicentennial commemoration. From those, the Alabama Bicentennial Commission selected 21 projects to receive legacy awards. All selected made a significant and lasting contribution to the state's commemoration.

"Alabama people, communities and organizations showed their creativity and resourcefulness throughout the commemoration, but nowhere more than in the programs and projects they brought to life," notes Alabama Bicentennial Commission executive director Jay Lamar. "They helped ensure the bicentennial engaged all ages and interests. The bronze plaques are permanent testimonies to their contributions."

“A person who never made a mistake never tried anything new”. – Albert Einstein

A scary side effect of COVID-19 is a tendency to have an inflamed heart muscle. This can lead to death if not treated and is especially dangerous for athletics (read this again and slowly football fans).

Labor Day has passed for 2020 and the question now is “How much COVID-19 increase will America see following the holiday festivities?” There were definite spikes in new cases following the Memorial Day weekend and 4th of July celebrations. Hopefully more people have realized the dangers inherent with the added ‘mixing and mingling’.

Washington DC insiders are sounding the alarm that the feds are likely to NOT pass another coronavirus relief bill between now and election time. And, yes, it is largely political issues holding up an additional massive spending bill. The Democrats have their Christmas list and the Republicans (read that as Trump) have an additional Christmas list. We say Trump because the Democrat lawmakers are not negotiating with Republican lawmakers, but directly with the White House. Trump aides are pushing things the president has openly advocated for and opposing some things the Democrats want. The reverse is true coming from the Democrat lawmakers. Our position on all this government give-away stuff (that is just printed money, not real stuff like you must have when going to the store) is borrowed money and that the grandchildren and great-grandchildren will be paying a huge price for our various handout portions of these stimulus bills. None of us can deny that the extra dollars in the bank account have a ‘feel good’ effect but probably most of us would have survived without it.

We are also skeptical of this deal of not paying social security for three months. Right now that in itself just a loan to the worker who gets the extra 6.2% in the paycheck. Come January, that money will have to be paid back. Thus if you are struggling to get buy today and that extra few dollars was some relief, you will really be hurting in January. That is doubly true if you got a ‘break’ and your landlord couldn’t kick you out for not paying your rent during the last several months. Now that short term relief is over and you owe this month’s rent plus all that back rent! Now that isn’t a whole lot of help in our simple mind.

The City of Elba is doing a good job of spraying for mosquitoes this summer. However, a few are escaping the spray machine. A couple of weeks ago one got into our house. Yours truly had just sat down on the sofa with a hot cup of coffee and a good book. Right there on our thumb an old mosquito lit. It was the hand holding the coffee- smoking and full to the brim! Now, we wanted to kill the rascal but also didn’t want to spill that delicious, but hot, coffee all over our leg and the sofa. He got away - for a while. In a few minutes he lit again in just about the same place ready for another blood sucking feast, except this time the coffee was on the little table beside our throne and he got swatted, not realizing that the pages of that book would not spill! The rest of our evening went very well thank you!

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's comments are best delivered using your biggest Southern drawl, lol!

Last Saturday, Cuzin Lou Lou literally contemplated running away before Sister could get ahold of her for this one! It's a doozy!

The thought even crossed Lou Lou's mind that if there can be such a thing as a witness protection program, surely there can be a sister protection program as well. And, if ever Lou Lou had needed protection, it was last Saturday afternoon!

Lou Lou was minding her own business when “boom” everything changed! That boom turned out to be Lou Lou backing into the side of Sister's vehicle as it was parked in the yard. Lou Lou forgot that Sister was parked on the grass rather than being in her normal parking spot in the garage.

Yep...she put her car in reverse, slowly started backing straight out of the garage as she has done so many, many times before, and BOOM!

“What in the name of Yonder,” Lou Lou thought as her car came to stop just as that boom scared the daylight out of her!

She looked up and “Glory!” There sat Sister's car directly behind Lou Lou.

Next thought... “Okay, I was barely moving, so, it can't be that bad, right?” Wrong!!

Lou Lou put her car back into drive and move forward. “Glory! Protect me Lord!”

The passenger door on the driver's side had a big ‘ole dent in it!

“Dear Lord, if ever you could place a shield of protection upon me, now is the time! She's a mean one when she's mad, and I can't run as quickly as I once could. Provide her with understanding and compassion. Lord. Amen.”

The long trek back inside the house began, but not before Lou Lou pondered how far she could get before Sister discovered the mangled door. Sister wasn't napping when Lou Lou walked outside so the odds were not in her favor to get far.

Time to face her fear! She went inside and informed Sister she had messed up and ran collided into her car.

“It's bad,” she admitted to Sister. “I am so very sorry. I will have it fixed.”

Sister moved quicker than Lou Lou had seen in quite some time as she headed outside to inspect. Lou Lou was ready for yelling, or crying, but not that gasp! Sister walked out and gasped with-out even thinking about it – that made it ten times worse on Lou Lou.

But, then Sister did something Lou Lou never expected. She told her it was okay and that the car could be fixed.

If you are not a believer in prayer, well you might better think twice about that one! Because the Good Lord saved Cuzin Lou Lou last Saturday afternoon so that she could live to tell her tales.

Only the Lord has the power to give Sister that amount of compassion and forgiveness!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling! Oh, and check that rear view mirror really well before backing up...Lou Lou wishes she had done a better job of that one last weekend!!

the most part to be coming from things happening outside of the schools rather than in the schools. With that in mind, he said he cannot encourage the public enough to do the things they can at home to protect themselves and their families to help keep the spread of the virus down in Elba.

"Like I've said before, I'm not a mask guy, but when I go into those schools my mask is on. When I go to our sporting events, my mask is on," Moseley said. "We all have to do our part. We must continue to work together as a community to do the necessary things so we can continue to have all our activities."

Looking ahead to Friday night's football game set to be held at Tiger Stadium, Moseley said there are some things the system is looking at enforcing more carefully to help ensure proper social distancing and safety.

He said the reserved section for fan seating will be monitored more closely Friday night, and only those who have purchased their reserved seat tickets will be allowed to sit in that section. He said this is necessary to help ensure that those fans can social distance throughout the section, if needed.

"No one without a reserved seat ticket will be allowed in that section," Moseley said. "If you purchase a general admission ticket, you will need to sit in one of our general admission sections. We have plenty of general admission seating available."

Also, the superintendent said there was an issue during the first home game of the season where some fans walked into the reserved parking area and watched the ball game from there rather than purchasing a ticket and entering the gates. He said this would no longer be allowed.

"You are hurting our student athletes when you do not purchase tickets, but still try and watch the event from non-designated areas," Moseley said. "If you do not feel comfortable entering the stadium due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Elba is a part of the NFHS Network and you can subscribe to that to be able to watch both football and volleyball online from the comfort of your own home."

V i s i t www.nfhsnetwork.com for more information on this program. It is only $10.99 per month to subscribe.

Moseley did brag on the job fans did in keeping children from moving around during the first home game of the season. He said everyone did a great job of staying seated for the game, and that helped greatly with the overall social distancing situation. He asked that everyone continue that practice again this Friday night.

"We feel good about where we are so far in this thing," Moseley said regarding COVID-19. "We just ask that our community continue to practice all the safety measures handed down in the guidelines. Our success depends on us all working together."

Friday night's football game will be senior night. Seniors will be recognized prior to the game.

Lessening the Burden of Grief by Giving Back

Grief can feel like a massive burden to bear—and all too often, it's a burden we feel like we're bearing alone. One way to ease this burden, and to feel less isolated, is to get involved in community service.

This can be as small-scale or as ambitious as you want it to be. Maybe it's as simple as volunteering to read to kids at an after-school program, or helping sort through donated items at the Salvation Army. Or maybe it's something as grand as helping build a Habitat for Humanity house, or taking on a more full-time volunteer position.

What's important is finding a cause that you'll find meaningful—and ideally, a cause that will allow you to spend some time serving other human beings.

Giving back can help the grieving process in a number of ways. For one, it allows you to do something practical and concrete to make the world just a little bit brighter. That can be a powerful counterbalance to the darkness you may be experiencing inside.

Also, community service helps you to see the needs of other people, and to remember that a lot of people are hurting and struggling in different ways. This isn't meant to diminish your own pain in the least, but rather to put it into context.

Finally, giving back can give you a sense of purpose—a reason to get up and keep going, even amidst bereavement. For many mourners, that sense of drive can be invaluable and therapeutic.

As you think about the best ways to lessen your grief burden, think about methods in which you can give back to the people around you.

Reflections

by Michael J. Brooks

His Eye Is On The Sparrow

It's a book much in the news today, and I just plowed through it. I wouldn't call it pleasure reading since it's filled with the intricacies of international diplomacy and the unpronounceable names of prime ministers and kings. The author recounts disagreements with the president he served, including when the administration considered a retaliatory air strike after losing a drone. He wanted it, but the president decided not since there would be "150 body bags" on enemy territory and perhaps many of them innocent civilians. The toll was simply too much, and the plan was scrapped.

I'm certainly no military strategist, but I don't think it's always true we lose strategic advantage by showing respect for life.

My generation remembers the weekly "kill reports" from Vietnam. Nightly news anchors told the number of Americans killed and the number of enemy killed. Psychologists say we became jaded by these reports. The first few times we heard them we were struck with sadness. But human life became cheap.

We've heard chilling words from American cities in turmoil in recent weeks—people so enraged all they can think about is hurting innocent people and destroying their businesses. Human life is cheap.

And a friend involved in ministering to women ensnared in human trafficking stunned me with accounts of children kidnapped and abused, and all of this in the Bible Belt. Women become nothing more than toys for evil men. Human life is cheap.

It's sad to see those who disrespect others through physical or verbal abuse, and those who disrespect themselves through addiction. Human life is cheap.

In contrast, Jesus talked about the value of every person. He said our heavenly father knows every sparrow that falls and knows about us because we're worth more than sparrows. He said God understands the intimate details of our lives, even the number of hairs on our head. And Jesus further pronounced the human soul worth more than anything the world offers. If we lose our soul, we've given our lives to nothing at all worthwhile (Luke 10: 30-31, 39).

A fable tells about jealous rats scheming to destroy a beautiful songbird. They offered to bring the bird worms so he wouldn't have to scavenge them himself.

"And it will only cost you one feather for one worm," they said.

At the end of the day, the bird was so stuffed with worms he couldn't sing, and so short of feathers he couldn't fly away. The evil rats destroyed him.

How sad that people can trade their song for worms, too.

The Creator wants to fill our lives with his love so that we can love and serve others. Anything less is worth very little, indeed.

Reflections is a weekly devotional column written by Michael J. Brooks, pastor of the Siluria Baptist Church in Alabaster, Ala. The church's website is siluriabaptist.com.

Justice for All

What "Gone With the Wind" so dramatically portrayed about the 1864 burning of Atlanta is what Habakkuk said awaited the Chaldeans. All their possessions would be fuel for the fire (Habakkuk 2:13). This is in fact the future that awaits the entire world, again (2 Peter 3:10). Habakkuk 2: 6-14 reminds us that the Lord will make certain that justice is carried out against evildoers.

"Justice for All" is very easy to say and desire. But putting hands and feet to this desire is quite another matter. Cries for justice echo throughout every society. Acts of violence against individuals or groups are followed by demands that justice be served and those responsible for the violence be punished. Systems that methodically keep people in positions to be mistreated are protested because they perpetuate injustice—sometimes on a massive scale. The whole world longs for justice.

This study from Habakkuk (Habakkuk 2: 6-14) along with the testimony of scripture as a whole, assures us that God will right all wrongs committed by human-beings. Sinners may escape the punishment required by human laws, but they cannot dodge Heaven's law so cleverly.

Former Elba football player and assistant coach speaks at Elba Quarterback Club 'game day' meeting Friday, Sept. 4th

The Elba Quarterback Club 'game day' lunch meeting Friday, Sept. 4, featured a former Elba player and coach as the guest speaker.

Kevin Killingsworth, current superintendent of schools for the Coffee County School System, spoke at the meeting. He was a 1987 graduate of Elba High School and former football player on teams that made it to two state championship games. Later, Killingsworth would return to his alma mater to serve as a teacher/coach and another time to serve as assistant principal of Elba High School.

"I have a lot of great memories from Elba High School and playing football for Elba," Killingsworth said. "I was fortunate enough to not only play for Coach [Mack] Wood, but I also coached with Coach Wood. He was a great football leader, and he took care of his players."

Killingsworth shared some fun stories from his playing days, including stories about the legendary Mack Wood being very superstitious. He said he followed the same rituals and the team always had the same pre-game meals because Coach Wood was so superstitious.

Event today, Killingsworth said he is a bit superstitious himself, and he said he believes he got that from Coach Wood.

"This is my 30th year in education, and I have seen a lot of things," Killingsworth said. "Football has always been very important in Elba, and it still is today."

He said it has been 15 years now since he has coached, and Killingsworth said he is not sure he could do it today. However, he said not many people can say they coached under three legendary hall of fame coaches, but he can in Mack Wood, David Lowery and Bill Bacon.

Talking specifically to the Elba players in attendance for Friday meeting, Killingsworth said he never put on an Elba Tigers uniform when he went into the game thinking Elba was going to lose. He encouraged the players to be that same way...to always suit up with the mindset they were going to win.

As for Elba's new coach Marc Sieving, Killingsworth said he is the kind of guy that will make sure things are done the right way and that he would have a disciplined program. Two things Killingsworth said he wanted for his alma mater's football program.

He also said Sieving would care for his players.

Killingsworth concluded his remarks saying, "I have a lot of great memories of Elba High School, and it has been my honor and privilege to be able to speak here today."

Kevin Killingsworth is shown speaking last Friday, Sept. 4, to the members of the Elba Quarterback Club during the weekly 'game day' lunch meeting.

Elba football coach Marc Sieving (right) recognized four players Friday, Sept. 4, during the Elba Quarterback Club's 'game day' lunch meeting as the Players of the Week for the Tigers from the week prior win over Opp. On offense Peyton McCart (#20) and Byron Burks (#2) were honored while on defense John Martin Wilson (#4) and Jacquez Prince (#7) receiving the player of the week nods from the coach staff.

Our grandson Lawson turns ten-years-old today and it is hard to believe that our little man has already blessed our lives for a decade. It seems like just yesterday that I was watching him being loaded onto a medical helicopter at a hospital in Montgomery for a flight to Children's Hospital for surgery, and I can still remember the many drives back and forth from Elba during which I would pray for the entire three-hour journey. Lawson is my heart, and I give thanks every day!

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers ran out of gas early in the second half after taking a two touchdown lead and were outscored 20-0 down the stretch last week in an important 41-34 region loss to G.W. Long. Elba grabbed an early lead and never trailed until midway through the fourth quarter, but simply didn't seem to have enough energy left to finish off what would have been a huge region road win, and now face a must win scenario in almost every region game left on the schedule. The Tigers went up and down the field on offense all night and rolled up almost 400 yards in total offense in utilizing a balanced attack that kept the G.W. Long defense guessing for all four quarters. The defense was a different story; however, as the Rebels were never even forced to punt, and rolled up almost 400 yards on the ground. The only times the Rebels were stopped were on fumbles, and even then they never slowed down and gashed the Elba defense for runs of ten or more yards on ten of their twenty-seven running plays. Despite the obvious problems, the Tigers still had a chance to win the game late, and that goes back to the mentality of the players that believe they will always win. One win doesn't make a season a success and one loss doesn't make a season a failure, and I expect the Tigers to bounce back and only get better and better in the weeks to come as they chase a playoff berth.

 It wasn't the best of weeks for the teams in the area as only the Brantley Bulldogs were able to hang up a 'W' on the board. Here's a quick look back....

 Brantley made it look easy for the second straight week with a big 55-0 region win over Kinston. The Bulldogs were dominant on both sides of the ball for all four quarters and left no doubt they are the team to beat in the region, and maybe the state in the 1A ranks. The big problem for the Bulldogs may be complacency as they put folks away early and then watch from the sidelines.

 Kinston was simply out-matched in its 55-0 loss to Brantley. However, the Bulldogs never quit battling and showed that they have a lot of fight and pride and are determined to win a bunch of games. The 'Dogs have played three pretty good teams already this season, including a 2A and a 3A opponent, and if they remember the lessons learned they should pass the tests yet to come.

 Zion Chapel could have easily throw in the towel against Abbeville after falling behind early, but the Rebels never backed down and battled until the end in a game in which the Rebel coaches may have found out just who really wants to play, and who wants to be a winner. The Rebels are in a tough region and will be challenged week in and week out. However, I believe they will show up for every fight.

 New Brockton began its first season in the 3A ranks with a 43-16 loss to Opp, but showed signs of being a quality 3A team, and will no doubt get much better now that it has finally been able to get on the field. The Gamecocks battled through a two-week quarantine prior to the game and lost countless hours of work, but played hard and gave their fans lots to be proud of.

 It was a wild week across the state with a total of 17 forfeits as the teams all swung into region play. Here is a look back at the week that was....

 Class 1A – Top-ranked Brantley blanked Kinston 55-0 and #2 Linden clobbered Keith 44-0, while three teams in the Top 10 lost, including #8 Marengo, which fell 35-0 to Sweet Water. Closer to home, Georgiana spanked Pleasant Home 42-13, McKenzie surprised Red Level 51-19 and Florala slammed Samson 44-0.

 Class 2A – Top-ranked Leroy claimed its second straight 1-0 forfeit win and #2 Randolph County defeated LaFayette 28-14, while #8 Elba was the only team in the Top 10 to taste defeat. Closer to home, Luverne bounced back with a 55-8 win over Coosa Central, Arton struggled a little in a 35-20 win over Houston County, and Geneva County pounded Cottonwood 39-12.

 Class 3A – Top-ranked Piedmont sacked Saks 35-6 and #2 Fyffe blanked Collinsville 54-0, while #6 Ohathee was only ranked team to lose, as it fell to #3 Walter Wellborn 20-14. Closer to home, Trinity clobbered Goshen 47-6, Hillcrest thumped Chickasaw 40-19, Houston Academy downed Daleville 45-20, T.R. Miller outscored Cottage Hill 35-13, Slocomb bombed Northside Methodist 63-14 and Wicksburg stunned Providence Christian 28-14.

 Class 4A – Top-ranked American Christian walloped Montevallo 63-31 and #2 Bibb County rolled over Dallas County 69-28, while #6 Deshler was the only loser in the Top 10 with a 33-14 loss to West Limestone. Closer to home, Geneva thumped BTW 35-14, Straughn improved to 3-0 with a 26-14 win over Bullock County, and Dale County clubbed Ashford 53-14.

 Class 5A – Top-ranked Central Clay edged past Sylacauga 27-22 and #2 St. Paul's defeated Williamson 28-12, while #9 Fairview was the only ranked team to fall as it lost to #6 Guntersville 48-12. Closer to home, Andalusia defeated Rehobeth 38-22, Pike Road flattened Carroll 60-7, Greenville blanked Charles Henderson 21-0 and Headland downed Central Hayneville 27-8.

 Class 6A – Top-ranked Mt. Brook blitzed Woodlawn 51-0 and #2 Oxford downed Scottsboro 41-14, while three ranked teams lost, including #4 Eufaula, which lost to Robert E. Lee 25-10. Closer to home, Carver got past Valley 34-22 and Opelika smacked Lanier 42-6.

 Class 7A – Top-ranked Thompson blasted Tuscaloosa County 49-7 and #2 Hewitt-Trussville spanked #10 Spain Park 45-13, while two ranked teams lost, including #5 Fairhope, which was downed by Daphne 41-13. Closer to home, Enterprise beat up on Dothan 42-13 and Auburn blanked Prattville 22-0.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator was still sleepy when he dropped by over the weekend and complained about how late he made it back home after the Friday trip to Skipperville. With trips to Cottonwood and Abbeville still on the schedule, I warned him that he will lose even more sleep before the season comes to an end. He wasn't too happy about the upcoming trips, but did promise to keep supporting the Tigers and left this week's picks. The local guesspert hit on ++ of his ++picks last week to move his season totals to ++ and ++, and predicted better days ahead. Here goes....

ELBA VS. ZION CHAPEL

The Pea River felines came home with their tails between their legs last weekend after a trip deep in the woods and this week will have to try and find enough energy to run away from some soldiers from up at Fort Jack that will come to town hunting furs. The felines may not be back at full strength after two tough weeks away from home, but should be able to get a much needed region win.

ELBA 34 ZION CHAPEL 16

In region clashTigers brace for Rebel invasion

The Elba Tigers will return home after two weeks on the road Friday night when they host the Zion Chapel Rebels, in a key region game for both teams.

Elba enters the game with a 2-1 record, but is 0-1 in region play, while Zion Chapel will bring an 0-2 record into the clash and is also 0-1 in region action. The Tigers lead the series with the Rebels 10-0 and won the last meeting against their cross-county rivals 62-0 back in 2017.

"We were all disappointed in the loss last week at G.W. Long," stated Elba coach Marc Sieving, "but we played a quality opponent and for the second week in a row had to play four quarters against a really good football team. We are continuing to find out things about ourselves; however, and know what our strengths and weaknesses are. The season is still young and we just have to keep working hard and try to improve every time we take the field."

"I take the responsibility for the way we played last week," added Sieving. "It is my job as the head coach to make sure my team is ready to play, and it was obvious we were not prepared on offense. We had players that didn't play sound fundamentals on defense and didn't step up and make tackles when they were in position. That comes back to me as the head coach and I promise you it will get corrected in a hurry."

When asked about Zion Chapel, Coach Sieving stated, "They have gotten off to a slow start, but a win over Elba would soothe all their wounds and we know they are going to come here well coached and ready to play. They have some big players up front and a big running back that is prob-

BRANTLEY VS. MCKENZIE

The bulldogs from up above the creek have barely worked up a sweat in two early season wins and this week will be back at home looking to showoff for the home folks. A litter of kitties expected to arrive late in the afternoon have their eyes on an upset, but the guess here is that the bulldogs will enjoy another big win.

KINSTON VS. RED LEVEL

The bulldogs from down near the county line will take a hike across the line over to Covington County and will be hoping to even their record after a big loss last week. The hometown kitties won't roll over and play dead, but these bulldogs won't be in a good mood and should bring home a win.

NEW BROCKTON VS. DALEVILLE

The roosters from over near the bypass will be looking to do some crowing late Friday night as they head over to the hole in Enterprise for a fly-in with some birds from over near Camp Rucker. The roosters will be determined to get a win after a crazy start to the season, and should be able to do just that.

ably bigger than anybody on our team. He will be hard to bring down, but we have to be aggressive and play hard on every play. Since we lost last week's region opener we know that every region game is a must win, and that starts this week."

"We have all the respect in the world for Zion Chapel and expect a hard hitting game," added Sieving, "but this week we are going to worry more about making Elba a better team than what our opponent might do. We have to try and find some depth on both sides of the ball, develop a rotation to get some guys a breather, and get back to playing hard up front and being physical. We have to get better in a hurry and when we hit the practice field be ready to get to work."

The Elba Tigers and G.W. Long Rebels tangled Friday night in an offensive shootout and it was the Tigers that ran out of bullets first as the Rebels scored the final twenty points of the game to claim a wild 41-34 region win, at Skipperville.

Elba began its first possession at the Long 39-yardline after a 41-yard kickoff return by Byron Burks, and from there it took the Tigers three plays to find the endzone. Collin Harrison scored the touchdown on a 32-yard gallop around the right end, and Jacquez Prince passed to Chrystyle Caldwell for the two-point conversion to give Elba an 8-0 lead with 10:19 remaining in the first quarter.

G.W. Long had a long touchdown run on its first play from scrimmage wiped out by a penalty flag, but the Rebels regained possession at their own 35-yardline after a defensive stand and this time went 65 yards in five plays to get on the scoreboard. A 40-yard run by Kobie Stringer was a key play in the long scoring drive, and it was Stringer that capped the drive with a 5-yard scoring dash. Tanner Patton kicked the extra point, as Long pulled within 8-7 with 2:38 left in the quarter.

Elba began its ensuing possession at its own 27-yardline and went 73 yards in four plays to get back into the endzone. A 61-yard scamper by Collin Harrison sparked the quick scoring drive, and it was Harrison that scored his second touchdown of the night, this time on a 1-yard blast off tackle. A two-point pass missed its target, but with 46-seconds left in the quarter the Tigers owned a 14-7 lead.

G.W. Long began its next series at its own 35-yardline and needed only two plays to cover the distance to the endzone as on second down Jackson Chancy broke loose and rambled 63 yards for a Rebel score. Patton added the extra point, and with 11:45 remaining in the second quarter the Rebels had pulled even at 14-14.

Elba put the ball in play at its own 20-yardline following the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards in eight plays to regain the lead. Jacquez Prince rushed for 19 yards on three carries and completed three passes for 54 yards to lead the Tigers down the field, and it was Prince that scored the Tiger touchdown on a 6-yard scamper. A two-point try failed to add points, but with 7:09 left in the quarter Elba was back on top 20-14.

The Tigers John Martin Wilson recovered a Rebel fumble on the ensuing kick-off to put the Tigers back in business at the Elba 36-yardline, and two plays later the Tigers were back in the endzone as on a second down play Jacquez Prince and Chrystyle Caldwell hooked up on a 62-yard touchdown toss. Collin Harrison ran in the two-point try, and with 6:00 remaining in the quarter the Tigers lead was up to 28-14.

G.W. Long bounced right back on its ensuing possession and went 55 yards in five plays to cut into the Elba lead. Kobie Stringer rushed for 45 yards on three carries and scored the Rebel touchdown on a 12-yard run, and Patton tacked on the extra point as G.W. Long pulled within 28-21 with 3:02 still left in the half.

Elba's Paxton Wise recovered a Rebel fumble on the first play of the third quarter to set the Tigers up near midfield, and the Tigers went 52 yards in nine plays to extend their lead. A 34-yard pass from Prince to John Martin Wilson on third down and seven kept the drive alive early, while the touchdown came on a 13-yard connection from Prince to Wilson. A two-point run failed to add points, but the Tigers lead was up to 34-21 with 7:29 remaining in the third quarter.

G.W. Long began its ensuing possession at its own 24-yardline, and after a 15-yard penalty against Elba on first down, set sails down the field to again reach the endzone. A 33-yard dash by Kobie Stringer early in the drive was a key play in the 76-yard scoring drive, while the touchdown came on fourth down and eight at the Elba 25-yardline when Stringer dropped off a screen pass to a wide open Hunter Whitehead, who raced untouched into the endzone. Patton's extra point was successful, and with 2:57 left in the third quarter the Rebels were within 34-28.

A short 14-yard Elba punt set the Rebels up near the midfield stripe early in the fourth quarter, and G.W. Long brought its fans back to their feet as the Rebels went 54 yards in only four plays to take their first lead of the night. Jackson Chancy rushed for 35 yards on two carries and scored the touchdown on a 20-yard dash up the middle, and Patton booted the extra point to put the Rebels on top 35-34 with 7:18 left on the clock.

Elba began its ensuing possession at the G.W. Long 39-yardline after a 60-yard kickoff return by JT Coleman, but the Tigers failed to take advantage of the excellent field position and turned the ball over on downs at the G.W. Long 43.

The Rebels were on a roll after the defensive stand and went 57 yards in four plays to extend their lead. Kobie Stringer scored the Rebel touchdown on a 40-yard run up the middle, and while a bad snap foiled the extra point try, G.W. Long was on top 41-34 with 2:35 left on the clock.

Elba began its final possession at its own 20-yardline, but quickly crossed midfield after a 16-yard pass from Jacquez Prince to Paxton Wise and a 12-yard scramble by Prince. The last-second rally was stopped by a pass interception at the G.W. Long 13-yardline; however, and at the final horn the dejected and tired Tigers left the field on the wrong end of a 41-34 final score.

Collin Harrison rushed for 146 yards and 2 touchdowns on 22 carries to lead the Elba ground game, while Jacquez Prince added 39 yards and 1 td on nine carries and completed 10 of 18 passes for 186 yards and 2 td's. Chrystyle Caldwell had two catches for 107 yards and one td, and John Martin Wilson had four catches for 57 yards and one score.

Kobie Stringer rushed for 189 yards and 3 td's on 13 carries and Jackson Chancy added 106 yards and 2 td's on 9 carries.

The New Brockton Gamecocks finally got their football season kicked off Friday night on Opp's Randy Griffin Field and after grabbing an early 7-0 lead watched Opp score the game's next 43 points as the home standing Bobcats ran away with a 43-16 region win.

New Brockton began its first offensive series of the night at its own 37-yardline and promptly marched 67 yards in eight plays to get on the scoreboard. A 33-yard pass completion from Kaden Cupp to Damarian Holt set the Gamecocks up at the Bobcat 11-yardline, while the touchdown came on an 8-yard run by Jamarus Brown. Jacob Bustamante kicked the extra point, and with 6:49 left in the first quarter the Gamecocks were on top 7-0.

Opp had a quick answer for the early New Brockton score as the Bobcats took the ensuing kickoff and went 66 yards to pull even. A 28-yard pass from Hal Smithart to Curt Zorn was a big play early in the long scoring drive, while Peyton Ellis capped the drive with a 4-yard scoring scamper. Jackson Pierce kicked the extra point as the Bobcats pulled even at 7-7 with 3:37 remaining in the opening quarter.

A bad snap on a punt attempt by the Gamecocks put the Bobcats right back in business at the New Brockton 10-yardline, and on the first play of the second quarter Kevin Parreira cashed in the turnover on a 3-yard run. The extra point try failed, but Opp was on top 13-7 with 11:54 left in the quarter.

Another high snap on a Gamecock punt attempt was recovered in the endzone for a Bobcat touchdown as Opp's lead grew to 19-7 with 9:22 left in the quarter, and after a pass interception midway through the quarter, the Bobcats headed back toward the endzone and went 62 yards in seven plays to add to their lead. Smithart tossed an 11-yard touchdown pass to Curt Zorn to put the Bobcats back in the endzone, and Pierce added the extra point as Opp's lead ballooned to 26-7 with 3:28 still remaining in the quarter.

Opp began its initial possession of the third quarter at its own 17-yardline following a Gamecock punt and covered the 83 yards to the endzone in 11 plays to add to its lead. A 21-yard pass completion from Hal Smithart to Robbie Gafford moved the Bobcats within inches of the goal line, and on the next play Parreira scored on a run out of the wildcat formation. The extra point by Pierce was successful, and with 4:54 left in the third quarter the Bobcats lead was up to 33-7.

Opp's Pierce booted a 30-yard field goal late in the quarter to push the Bobcats lead to 36-7, and the Bobcats scored their final points of the night with 7:07 remaining in the fourth quarter when Robbie Gafford returned a Gamecock punt 35 yards for a touchdown, and Pierce added the extra point, as Opp went on top 43-7.

New Brockton lost a fumble near the Opp endzone on its next possession after marching 70 yards, but did salvage two points on the next snap when the Gamecocks Andrew Cashin tackled an Opp runner in the endzone for a safety.

New Brockton's Colton Marsh returned the ensuing free kick 46 yards to the Opp 13-yardline, and Kaden Cupp scored on a 12-yard run with 17-seconds left on the clock to put the Gamecocks back in the endzone. Bustamante booted the extra point, and when the game ended seconds later it was the Bobcats that celebrated the 43-16 win.

Jamarus Brown gained 68 yards on 16 carries and scored one touchdown to lead the Gamecock running game, while Kaden Cupp rushed for 40 yards and one td on 18 carries and completed 8 of 15 passes for 63 yards, with Colton Marsh pulling in one catch for 20 yards and Brandon Johnson catching three passes for 14 yards.

Avery Weed had 7 tackles to lead the Gamecock defense, while Andrew Cashin added 6 stops, including two sacks and a tackle for a safety. Tre Boland and Julian Noble both added 5 tackles and Colton Marsh had 4 stops and an interception.

New Brockton Gamecock Damarian Holt (4) goes up between two Opp defenders to pull in a catch in last week's season opener in Opp. The Gamecocks host Daleville Friday night at Bates Memorial Stadium, in Enterprise.

Brantley klobbers Kinston 55-0

By Linda Hodge, Editor

The Kinston Bulldogs and the Brantley Bulldogs met last Friday night, Sept. 4, for a dog fight in Kinston as the two teams opened Class 1A region play. Both teams were coming off big wins the week prior.

The Bulldogs from Brantley received the opening kickoff of the game, and a 45-yard touchdown pass to Kenuwyn Dixon (#1) resulted in the first points of the game. The extra point try was good, and with 9:20 left in the first, Brantley led 7-0.

Kinston had a quick three and out on its first offensive series and punted back to Brantley with 7:04 left in the first quarter. Only 14 seconds expired from the clock following the punt as Brantley found paydirt once again on a touchdown pass to Daquan Pittman (#5). The extra point was good, and with 6:50 left in the first quarter, Brantley led 14-0.

The Kinston Bulldogs made got their first offensive first down of the night with 6:18 left in the first quarter; however, that led to another fourth down on the next set of downs, and Kinston once again sent the punt team onto the field.

The next Brantley possession again led to more points. This time the touchdown came in the form of a pass reception by Dixon (#1) from quarterback Tucker Kilcrease (#12). The extra point was good, and with 3:44 left in the first Brantley led 21-0.

On the ensuing kickoff, Kinston's Hunter Hughes (#14) returned the ball to the 25 yard line, but the hometown Bulldogs soon found themselves facing yet another fourth down. The Kinston punt to the Brantley 40 appeared to turn into a big play for Brantley as the kick was returned to the Kinston 10 yard line; however, a flag negated the big run.

Brantley's Dixon soon found himself in the endzone again though as he took a handoff from the quarterback and raced for the long touchdown with 51 seconds left in the first quarter. The two-point try was no good, but the Brantley lead was extended to 27-0.

Kinston's fifth offensive series in the first quarter began with a nice kickoff return by Jeb Crosby (#1) to the Kinston 40 yard line. A five yard carry by Addison Hudson (#15) placed Kinston at the 45 yard line as the first quarter expired. The series stalled at the beginning of the second quarter when a third down play failed to gain any additional yards, and Kinston punted on fourth down.

Brantley's first offensive series of the second quarter proved to be less than stellar as three incomplete passes and a flag hindered offense's momentum. Brantley turned the ball over on downs this series to Kinston.

After taking over at the Brantley 45 yard line, Kinston's Hudson (#15) gained seven yards on a run for this team. An additional yard gained on third down had Kinston facing a fourth and two when Brantley was flagged for being offside. The automatic first down for Kinston due to the Brantley penalty did not turn into much more for Kinston as the series stalled, and Brantley took over on offense with 6:25 left in the second quarter.

Three pass completions for Brantley soon had the Bulldogs set up at the Kinston 12 yard line. Then, on a quarterback keeper, Tucker Kilcrease raced 12 yards to score. The extra point try was good, and with 3:46 left in the second quarter Brantley led 33-0.

Brantley got the ball back quickly as a Kinston fumble on its second down play was recovered by the Brantley defense at the Kinston 40 yard line. With 1:51 left in the second quarter, Brantley extended its commanding lead on a touchdown pass to Pittman (#5). The extra point was good making the score 41-0, which would be the halftime score.

Brantley scored early in the third quarter to extend its lead. This time, the score came on a rush by Pittman (5). The extra point was good, making the score 48-0 in favor of Brantley.

On Kinston's ensuing offensive series of the second half, Konner Walker (#25) made a first down on a second and eight carry for his team. The Kinston offense did make it into Brantley territory before turning the ball over on downs after being unable to make a fourth and short play.

Brantley scored the final points of the night on a handoff to Robert Shine (#7), and he raced in for a touchdown with 1:04 left in the third quarter. The extra point was good, and the Brantley led extended to 55-0.

The win put the Bulldogs at 2-0 on the season and 1-0 in region play. The Brantley defense has yet to let an opposing offense score on them this season shutting out rival Luverne 49-0 and Kinston 55-0.

As for Kinston, the Bulldogs are now 1-2 on the season and 0-1 in region play.

Zion Chapel Rebels stung by Yellowjackets 38-0

Story and photos by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Zion Chapel Rebels played host Friday night, Sept. 4, to a swarm of yellowjackets from Abbeville, and the Rebels quickly discovered their visitors came with a sting.

The Rebels received the opening kickoff at Bates-Memorial Stadium in Enterprise, which is home for the Rebels this 2020 football season. After starting first and ten from the 25-yard line, the Rebels lost yardage on their first two offensive plays and failed to convert a long third down forcing an early punt to Abbeville.

A long punt return for the Yellowjackets set them up deep in Rebel territory, and on a third down play Abbeville put the first points on the scoreboard with a 5-yard touchdown dash. The extra point attempt was good, and with 9:07 left in the first quarter Abbeville was up 7-0.

Another three and out for the Rebels forced Zion Chapel's second punt of the night. Abbeville went to work again near midfield at the 48-yardline. It took only one play from the line for the Yellowjackets to score again as Martavious Glanton (#11) scampered 52-yards for a TD. The extra point try failed, but with 7:22 remaining in the first quarter, Abbeville extended its lead to 13-0.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Rebels returned the ball to their 36-yardline. Unfortunately, a couple of negative yardage running plays and an incomplete pass attempt forced the Rebels to punt yet again on fourth down.

One play later, Abbeville's Glanton raced another 48 yards to score his second touchdown of the night. The extra point try was good, and with 5:31 left in the first Abbeville led 20-0.

Things only got worse for the Rebels from there as the ensuing kickoff was fumbled, and Abbeville recovered the ball at the Zion Chapel 34 yardline. One play later, Martavious Glanton was off to the races again, and he scored touchdown number three on the night. The extra point try was no good, but the Yellowjackets lead extended to 26-0 with 5:18 still left in the first quarter.

Zion Chapel's offense went to work again following the Abbeville kickoff. This time, the Rebels began their offensive series at the Rebel 26 yardline. The Rebels made a couple of positive yard plays and were facing a third and eight before quarterback Whit Wilkerson (#6) was caught by the Yellowjackets defense for a three yard loss. A fourth and 11 brought the Rebels punt team back out onto the field for the fourth punt in the first quarter of action.

The Yellow Jackets went to work this time from the Zion Chapel 49 yard line and scored from the 49 on a first and ten play. The extra point attempt was no good, but the Abbeville lead was now 32-0 with 2:46 left in the first quarter.

The first quarter came to an end after the Rebels failed to gain in yards on its next offensive series and was forced to punt on a fourth and twelve play. As the second quarter began, the game clock was set for 8 minutes instead of the normal 12. No additional scoring occurred in the second quarter.

When the two teams returned to the field after halftime, six-minute quarters were agreed upon by the teams. The remainder of the game passed fairly quickly, but Abbeville did add to its final score with 35 seconds left in the game as #21 Clarence Brown rushed for the final TD of the night. The extra point try was no good.

The final score was Abbeville 38 and Zion Chapel 0.

Zion Chapel senior Brockston Bragg was the workhorse for the Rebels in the game from his running back spot, although a stingy Yellow Jackets defense made it hard to gain many yards. Bragg also was forced to step into the quarterback role for his team late in the first half as starting quarterback Whit Wilkerson (#6) was sidelined with what appeared to be a leg injury.

The Rebels fell to 0-2 on the season and 0-1 in region play after the loss to Abbeville last Friday night.

Drum Major Stetson Adcock and the award winning Zion Chapel Marching Band performed last week at halftime of the Rebels' region clash against Abbeville and wowed the large crowd on hand.
